MATTERS ARISING

3.1 There were no matter arising.

PROFESSIONALS/GREENKEEPERS/REINSTATEMENT

- 4.1 Our thanks to the greenkeepers for their efforts keeping the course in good conditions under difficult weather conditions, and with heavy water problems on the 9th as usual
- 4.2 We appreciate that the first stage, trimming back one of the overhanging trees in front of the 5th tee, has been completed, so the tombstone has been restored to the normal position. We await further trimming of other trees on the left side of the fairway. What will happen about the damaged tree on the right of the 5th hole?..
- 4.3 We have requested more trimming back of the trees on the right of the 1st hole.
- 4.4 Hollow tining is scheduled for the 11th April, but is of course weather dependant.

SECRETARY/TREASURER

- 5.1 93 members but there are 39 not yet paid.
- 5.2 £7058.61.76 in the bank as of January 1st 2018 (end of the Financial Year). Payment is due to the EGU and MCGU in the next month..
- 5.3 Still no soil tests have been carried out on the course as yet, but another 3 months notice of intent has been claimed.
- 5.4 The Honour Boards have been brought up to date. The Trophies will be done this month

CAPTAIN'S REPORT

- 6.1 A match versus Haste Hill in April is to be arranged
- 6.2 The Club will enter one team for the Clapham Common and one team for the Middlesex 6's. comprising one pair each of low, medium and high handicaps. Teams will be selected on performance .
- 6.3 The Club has a bye in the Daily Mail 1st round.

- 6.4 Attempts are being made to arrange matches with Hillingdon G.C. and possibly Stockley Park G.C.
- 6.6 Justin Moore attended the NAPGC AGM. Ed Mitchell was re-elected as Secretary.
